Male-Female Relationship Tip. When does God want you to say "NO" to someone's request to have a meal together. 1 Cor 5:11 I meant that you are not to associate with anyone who claims to be a believer yet indulges in sexual sin (fornicator =sexual activity outside of marriage, one who "surrenders" their sexual purity)...or is abusive (=rails at you), or is a drunkard (=drinks to the point of drunkenness)... Don't even eat with such people. 1 Cor 15:33 Don't let anyone deceive you. Associating with bad (=inwardly foul, morally rotten from the inside) people will ruin decent people.

Helpful Tips for

Great Table Discussions

Each table should have designated discussion leader/facilitator. Note: If no one has been chosen by Jane to do this, we would ask someone in the group that has had experience leading Bible studies or small groups to volunteer to lead.

1. Use God’s ear-to-mouth ratio:
Listen two times more than you speak. 1 or 2 people should not dominate the time, and EVERYONE should contribute during the discussion.
2. Smile and be friendly. Avoid excessive complaining about people or personal problems.
3. God’s grace rules the day.
Recognize that everyone will not always agree – be gracious and give grace to one another. People are at different places in their spiritual walk and in their life journey.
4. Moving the discussion along.
Table hosts/facilitators are to move the discussion along. They have permission to limit any negative comments, to invite people to answer a question, to ask someone for their perspective, to limit the amount of time some people speak, and to move on to the next question.
5. Help for the hurting: This is a supportive group, but it is not a support group or a therapy session. But if someone is really hurting, take a moment and have someone in the group specifically pray for them.

Next week – Brian will share 10-15 more ideas and insights into men, women, and relationships.
