

Table Discussion Questions for this week:

1. (Everyone) Share your name, current work/career, and your favorite sports team to watch (if you have no interest in sports – share your favorite recreational hobby/activity).

2-3 help answer each question:

2. What was the best advice you've ever received from someone that has made a positive difference in your life?
3. Are you facing any major decisions now or in the coming year - if yes, what? (e.g. job change, housing change, major item to purchase or sell, relationship, health, finances, etc.)?
4. How was tonight's teaching helpful to your thoughts about making major decisions in the future?
5. There are people in our group that would like to be married in the future. So, what are your thoughts on the picture with the 2 rings and how do you feel it fits in with tonight's teaching?
6. Were there any specific circles/factors you had never realized before tonight should be a part of your major decisions? How will this new insight help you in the future?
7. Looking at the verses on the back of the page, is there one verse that has been meaningful to you in the past OR could be meaningful to you in the future? Which verse and why is this so encouraging to you?
8. Whether you have come once, several times, or many times – what is a "highlight" for you about attending this group?

Table Discussion Questions for this week:

1. (Everyone) Share your name, current work/career, and your favorite sports team to watch (if you have no interest in sports – share your favorite recreational hobby/activity).

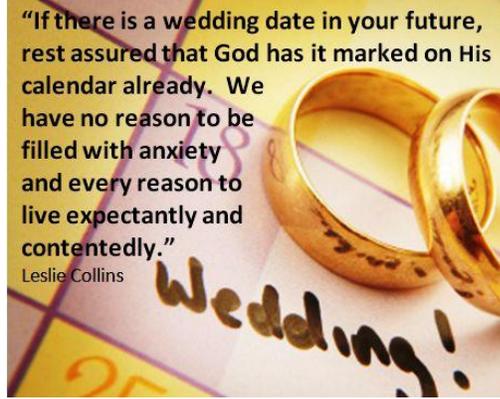

2-3 help answer each question:

2. What was the best advice you've ever received from someone that has made a positive difference in your life?
3. Are you facing any major decisions now or in the coming year - if yes, what? (e.g. job change, housing change, major item to purchase or sell, relationship, health, finances, etc.)?
4. How was tonight's teaching helpful to your thoughts about making major decisions in the future?
5. There are people in our group that would like to be married in the future. So, what are your thoughts on the picture with the 2 rings and how do you feel it fits in with tonight's teaching?
6. Were there any specific circles/factors you had never realized before tonight should be a part of your major decisions? How will this new insight help you in the future?
7. Looking at the verses on the back of the page, is there one verse that has been meaningful to you in the past OR could be meaningful to you in the future? Which verse and why is this so encouraging to you?
8. Whether you have come once, several times, or many times – what is a "highlight" for you about attending this group?

TIPS for TABLE DISCUSSIONS

If you don't have a table host, have someone volunteer who has led Bible study or small groups in the past.

1. EVERYONE should contribute.
2. Smile and be friendly.
3. Be gracious and give grace to one another.
4. Keep the discussion moving, don't get too sidetracked.
5. Be kind if someone is hurting, but still go through the questions.

"If there is a wedding date in your future, rest assured that God has it marked on His calendar already. We have no reason to be filled with anxiety and every reason to live expectantly and contentedly."

Leslie Collins

TIPS for TABLE DISCUSSIONS

If you don't have a table host, have someone volunteer who has led Bible study or small groups in the past.

1. EVERYONE should contribute.
2. Smile and be friendly.
3. Be gracious and give grace to one another.
4. Keep the discussion moving, don't get too sidetracked.
5. Be kind if someone is hurting, but still go through the questions.

"If there is a wedding date in your future, rest assured that God has it marked on His calendar already. We have no reason to be filled with anxiety and every reason to live expectantly and contentedly."

Leslie Collins