Philippians 2:12 18 (NIV) 12 Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, 13 for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose. 14

Do everything without grumbling or arguing, 15 so that you may become blameless and pure, “children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation.” Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky 16 as you hold firmly to the word of life. And then I will be able to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain. 17 But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you.

18 So you too should be glad and rejoice with me. Timothy and Epaphroditus

Discussion Questions:

1. How's your attitude about day to day life? Work – Personal – Relationships?
2. When things don't go your way, when in fact things seem to fall apart, maybe even with your health – How's your attitude?
3. Do you find the guidelines helpful to transform our attitudes into more Godly thoughts?
4. Where has your "hope" been? Yourself, Friends, or Circumstances? Let's be honest, although it should be, our hope isn't always in the Lord.
5. How committed are you to a complete renewal?
6. If you are committed to living a life of renewal and standing for the things that are right for God, what do you think you need to inventory in your life now? What may need to change? Can you fully lean on God?
7. Consider Asa, what might you take a stand on that would stand for God? (i.e. Has someone you know taken advantage of someone, hurt someone, could you change that situation with taking a stand for God?)
8. Revival will come to God's people when someone will step out in a committed faith and take bold action in His name to get rid of whatever hinders God's return and God's blessings.... What does this statement mean to you?
9. God will send revival to His people when they are fully committed to repairing the broken things that matter to Him and bring him honor and glory. Is there something broken you can repair tomorrow that will bring honor and glory to God?
