Contrasts Between People Who Do things Right vs People Who Focus on Doing the Best Things

Characteristics of People Who Insist on Doing Things the Right Way – (Avoid Seeking the Will of God)

Characteristics of People Who Focus on doing the best Things For God's Will

Discussion Questions:

What is God telling you about some decisions that need to be made in your life? Where is He asking you to trust and grow this year?

Knowing that many of you want to find your "true love" how is it that God is speaking to you tonight that might make you take a step back and re-evaluate where you are? Are there some changes you need to make before that can happen?

Are you keeping your faith in a little box or have you decided to allow God to have complete control? Are you allowing Him to do great and mighty things in your life?

What choices have you made to make your life different today?

When God gives us an assignment, He expects obedience. When making your decision, do you tend to try it your way first or be obedient? This becomes a decision of faith. Where would you say you are with your faith based on this? Little faith or Big faith? Why or why not?

Tell of a time that you made a choice and the minute you made that choice you knew it was wrong.

What did you learn from the story of Abram tonight? How about the attitude of Nick Vujicic?

We can wander around pursuing our choices, or we can remember the God who has worked in our life so many times before and trust in him and worship him. We can focus on ourselves or we can show the love of Christ in everything we do. Are you wandering pursuing your choices or are you trusting God in all things? What is your biggest struggle?
